Do You Know the Story of Canada's Battle Glory?

How many prisoners did Canadian troops take in the last 100 days of the Great War?
How many big guns were captured?
How many towns and cities liberated?

Turn to story by John Oliver on Page 11, and learn of the remarkable achieve-ments of the men all Canada is honoring today.

1918 November 11th

November 11th is a glorious day in the hearts of men the world over. To Canadians of this age it is a day even more full of meaning than Confederation. For a vivid memory is living with us of men and young men—friends and relatives—who offered their lives in the cause of democracy.

We have deficated November 11th to the memory of World War Heros. Today, as during the past nine years, we paused in our work at the stroke of eleven, with face to the blast to reflect with reve-ence on great deeds bravely done. But who of us-can think of this as the day and the only day, to ex-can think of this as the day and the only day, to ex-

Do You Know the Story of Canada's Battle Glory?

Dominion Troops Brought Disaster To German Arms

In Last Hundred Days of Great War, "Our Boys" Cap-tured 31,537 Prisoners, 623 Heavy Field Guns, 8842 Machine Guns, Won 500 Square Miles, Liberated 228 Towns

When the "Cease Fire" order was communicated to troops on the Western front from the North Sea to the France-Switzerland howled at 11 a.m. on Nov. 11, 1918, hostilities in the greatest war in history terminated.

Canadian troops in company with their allies, rested on their arms and, for the first time in over four years, breathed recely and securely, while arcses the area known as "no man's and" the hastily retiring tiernan armies paused to consider the assignitude of the ocean and the communication of the property of the property of the communication of the property of the communication of the property of the property of the communication of the property of the LONDON. Nov. 11—It is now more possible than ever that Great Britain will not be represented in the Olympic games of 1928. Reconfly at Geneva the International Olympic Committees niet in special session to pass on the legality of soccephapter receiving payment for time lost from work. The rather had been passed that such payment was to be allowed, but Britain protested and asked for a reconsideration. The officials ruled that the payment clause will stand.

Ottawa Light Heat & Power Company, Limited 5% Refunding and Collateral Trust Sinking Fund Gold Bonds

sted October 1, 1927, maturing October 1, 1937, incipal and semi-annual interest payable in Canada, w York or London. Denominations $1,000 and $500.

The Company controls, through ownership of The Ottawa Electric Company and The Ottawa Electric Public utility system serving a population in excess of 160,000. Its customers, including the Canadian Pacific, Canadian National and New York Central railways, and Dominion Government buildings, number approximately 40,000.

Consolidated net operating earnings for the year 1926 were equivalent to 3.15 times annual interest charges on funded debt, including this issue. Physical properties are conservatively estimated to have a depreciated present value very largely in excess of the amount of bondo outstanding.

We recommend these Bonds for invest 99 and interest, yielding over 5.05%
